

SPECIAL OFFER:

Bacteria & Nitrate Testing

Due to the high increase of bacteria found in local water supplies, the Chester County Health Department recommends that people using wells as their primary source of water should get a bacteria test taken on a semi-annual basis. Also recommended is testing for nitrates which are commonly found in our area and can affect young children and women that are pregnant. Lester Water has trained service professionals who take water samples and transport them to a certified laboratory for testing.

$99⁰⁰
+ tax

Lester Water Inc.

